Contract for Four Portable Anza Classrooms Awarded

The Calcor Corp. was awarded a $96,800 contract for construction of an additional four portable classrooms at Anza Elementary School by the Torrance Board of Education Tuesday night.

When the portable additions are completed, Anza School will be second largest elementary facility in Torrance.

The school's attendance area has a heavy concentration of young children, with kindergartners outnumbering eight-graders about 3-1.

8TH GRADER PRESIDENT AT WOOD SCHOOL

Steven Stanley, an eighth-grader, was elected president of the Student Council at Howard Wood Elementary School last week in a run-off election. He defeated Beverly Combs. All students in Grades 4 through 8 took part in the balloting. Sandy Cook was elected vice president.

Other officers are Jill Eckersley, secretary; Bonnie Combs, judge; and Patsy Graves, lower-grade commissioner. Room representatives also were named.

Installation ceremonies were held Friday.

Camp Fire Girls Help Promotion on Yule Seals

Members of the Woh Ka Ne Camp Fire Girls have volunteered to place Christmas Seal promotion material throughout the Torrance business area.

The sale is on behalf of the Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Mrs. Irving Rodner, Christmas Seal chairman for the Camp Fire Girls, will head the 1959 campaign, assisted by Josephine D. Coleman, assistant guardian of the Woh Ka Ne Camp Fire Girls. The campaign will open next Wednesday.

Absentee Ballots Available for Water Election

Mrs. Albert Geduld, chairman of the voters' service of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates is reminding voters who expect to be absent from their precinct, or unable to vote in the Nov. 17 water-replenishment-district election, to note the following information:

An absentee ballot may be obtained from the county registrar of voters, 808 N. Spring St., Los Angeles, until Nov. 12.

Special Classes Discussed at Gateway PTA Meet

Members of the Nathaniel Narbonne PTA were hostesses at the recent October meeting of Gateway Council.

Theme for the month, "Gateway Council Takes a New Look at Community Attitudes" was slanted toward exceptional children of secondary school age level.

Mrs. Arthur Niemand, executive director of Harlan Shoemaker Clinic in Los Angeles presented Mavourneen Shifflett, a 16 year old student from Huntington Park High School who has suffered a hearing impediment since infancy.

Miss Shifflett was accompanied by her mother who has been her teacher and guide during her school years. Despite her handicap it is believed that Mavourneen will find it possible to become a college student.

Major business of the meeting included the acceptance of the resignation of second vice president, Mrs. Harry T. Nishimoto. Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss was elected to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. D. W. Ten Eyck was elected representative to the Tenth District Nominating Committee with Mrs. Eisenbeiss to serve as alternate.

Mrs. Peter Costa Jr., magazine chairman, announced that Gateway Council is one of the two councils in Tenth District that has attained a first step or "blue" seal on the Magazine Certificate.

Mrs. Oscar Smith, Community Chest chairman reported 100 per cent enrollment for the council. Presidents from Banning, Dana Jr., Fleming Jr., Gardena, Narbonne, Peary Jr., San Pedro, S.

Tom Cliburn Gets Army Promotion

Thomas P. Cliburn, son of Hannah E. Cliburn, 1417 Greenwood Ave., recently was promoted to specialist four in Germany, where he is a member of the 47th Ordnance Group.

Cliburn, a clerk-typist in the group's headquarters detachment in Stuttgart, entered the Army in August 1958, completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C., and arrived overseas last February.

M. White Jr. and Wilmington Jr., High PTA's presented progress reports.

Luncheon in the school cafeteria followed the meeting.
